Home
About
Contact

Mahdi Abolfathi

Information Technology Student

I am Mahdi and I am a Computer Information Technology student intrested in learning web development, and Geography Information system minor, working on improving computer networking and professional skills through academic projects and hands-on experience.

Extra Curricular Experience

Video editor and IT Technician

10/20/2026

- I helped learnt how to edit SQL video with Fliki
- Project Management Professional(PMP)
- Business & Technology innovation

Education

California State University, Northridge

High School Graduate from Granada Hills Charter High

Earning Bachlors Degree in CIT (Computer Information Technology) and minoring in GIS(Geography Information system) Expected year to graduate In Spring 2028.

Extra Curricular acttivities

Iranian Student Association

Served as Secratary for the Iranian Student Association by taking meeting notes for the club advisor, club president and other members, helping to organize club events,preparing materials, and creating zoom meetings.

